

A photograph of three young people in conversation. On the left, a young woman with long blonde hair, wearing a brown sweater, looks down and to the right. In the center, a young woman with dark hair, wearing a grey hoodie over a red and white striped shirt, looks up and to the right. On the right, a young man with dark hair, wearing a light blue button-down shirt, looks towards the other two. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue sky.
